HIS DYING WORDS

"Tell my friends to be brave and fearless and remain loyal to the great common people."
—Gov. Wm. Goebel.

READ WHAT THEY SAY.

At the recent Republican County Convention delegates were appointed to the District Convention, to be held at Winchester, on Wednesday, May 16, and State Convention at Louisville on 17th.

Among other resolutions they adopted the following:
Resolved, That we heartily approve of the conduct of Gov. W. S. Taylor and other State officers in resisting the enforcement of the Goebel Law, and they have our sympathy in the great wrongs that have been practiced upon them by the Legislature and the Courts in the conflict to oust them from the offices to which they were fairly and honestly elected.

Resolved, That we resent and denounce the false and vilely slanderous imputations persistently cast upon the character of the law-abiding, honest and intelligent people of the mountain territory. Their loyalty to liberty and resistance to oppression shows their title clear to the respect and esteem of their brethren of the Bluegrass.

Resolved, That we appreciate and commend the course of all those brave and courageous members of other political parties who placed State above party and liberty above personal preference and so manfully and potently aided in our late struggle for civil liberty and equal political rights.

Now what do you think? They appear to have no confidence in Legislature or Courts (Judge Taft rendered a decision) and think that their party candidates were "fairly and honestly elected."

What about the "mountain" people who are not "law-abiding, honest and intelligent?"

The writer was born in the mountains and has no apology to make for the fact, yet he does not approve of all acts of all mountain people. He would have all of them respected and esteemed.

Of course, they must compliment those members of other political parties who affiliated with them.

The question now, is: Since W. S. Taylor and his Republican accomplices in murder have been so ventilated, will these same "brave and courageous members of other political parties" still cheerfully affiliate with Taylor and his party?

We presume they do not feel like shouting.

LESS BLOOD BUT MORE HANGING.

In addressing the Republican convention in this city on yesterday afternoon the Hon. A. T. Wood in speaking of the "struggle for liberty, a fair count, etc." said in substance:

"If the Republicans are elected on November 6 and the committee at Frankfort counts us out I would be willing to go to Frankfort and take that committee and hang them to a limb of a tree. You may call that treason if you want to. The people of Kentucky will not stand such conduct again."

That is nearly as bad as wading in blood knee deep, or the Republican plot to murder Democratic members of the Legislature and the threats to kill a Democratic Judge of the Court of Appeals, so that Republicans could get control. If our readers will excuse a young man for referring to one now gray-haired in his party's service, we say that we are ashamed of him for such an utterance. We had hoped that the recent experience of some of his party in their humiliating, shameful and murderous schemes would have taught him moderation in thought and expression.

PAY UP OR GO TO JAIL.

Is the order of Judge Evans. E. B. Nugent, the bankrupt merchant of Louisville, was arraigned in the Federal Court to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt. He had been ordered to pay into court $14,435.95, realized from sale of stock, and which he was attempting to withhold from his creditors. The Judge has given him until May 26 to comply. If the money is not paid, Nugent goes to jail until it is paid.

He is now an old man about 80 years old. 'Tis sad that one so old should have his last days so clouded. His son is implicated in this fraudulent transaction and in all probability can save his father from prison.

Such dishonesty deserves a severe rebuke. What does it profit a man to get money if in getting it he sacrifices honesty, trust, honor and the esteem of his fellowmen?

THE CONTEST.

After the argument had been completed in the Kentucky Governorship contest before the United State Supreme Court, the Chief Justice committed the case for final decision to Judge John M. Harlan, of Kentucky. The probability is that his decision will be given during this week. There are conflicting guesses as to what it will be. Anxiously the people await the conclusion, for upon it depend in a large measure the welfare and good name of our State.

O'REAR LEADING.

Our Townsman Receives Instruct-ed Votes

Of Clark, Menefee, Morgan, Estill and Montgomery.

The Republicans of Clark held their convention on Saturday and instructed their 20 votes for Ed C. O'Rear for Judge of Court of Appeals. He has received instructions also from Menefee, Estill Morgan and Montgomery counties.

POWELL ENDORSES BURNS.

The Republicans of Powell county at their convention on May 7 elected W. A. Mansfield, Chairman and Fred Blackburn, Secretary. The convention endorsed the National and State administration and condemned the prosecution of Powers and others. Considerable surprise was manifested when it was known that the vote of the county was lost for Judge E. C. O'Rear. The vote was: Burns, 70; O'Rear, 30.

Decision Next Monday.

A telegram from Washington yesterday says: The Supreme Court of the United States will not give its decision in the Kentucky Governorship case until next Monday.

The many strikes of labor organizations throughout the country are a fair sample of the prosperity attending the "Benevolent Assimilation" Administration of Mark and Mack. These two great philanthropists think a great deal of the laboring man—about election time.

It is a sin the way the little stub-end cigar politicians boost the hero of assassination. "Gov." Wm. S. Taylor, but what about the standing-up, conservative men of the Republican party? We hear nothing from them. They are very, very mum. The handwriting is on the wall.

Poor Taylor "hath no where to lay his head" for a much needed rest from the excitement and turmoil that usually attends a great administration of political affairs. Perchance he is longing for the time to come when he can pass away, like a spring chicken, with the limberneck.

Southern Baptist Convention.

This convention now in session at Hot Springs, Ark., is largely attended. On Sunday the estimated attendance of visitors was 6,000. Ex-Governor Northern, of Arkansas, was unanimously chosen President for the ensuing year.

The total contributions for the past year from the Woman's Missionary Union to the Foreign Board, including the annuity gift, are $31,757.65.

The State C. E. Convention at Versailles.

The eleventh annual State Convention of the Kentucky Christian Endeavor Society began in Versailles on Friday.

The morning trains from Louisville and Lexington, and a special bearing the delegates from Covington and etc. brought in over two hundred people, and by night the crowd was swelled to three hundred.

Versailles entertained her visitors in handsome style, and the main thoroughfare, clothed in purple and white bunting, with flags flying from every housetop, presented a holiday appearance.

The address of welcome was delivered by Hon. W. O. Davis, in behalf of the city, and was responded to by Mr. Harry Rogers, of Mt. Sterling, for the visitors.

Rev. A. Judson Arrick, of Louisville, President of the Kentucky State C. E. Union, addressed the convention in the evening.

This convention, is said by all the delegates to be the most enthusiastic gathering the young people's societies have ever had in this State.

Among the speakers were Judge John D. Ellis, of Newport, Mr. William S. Waller, of Louisville; Mr. W. T. Burr, of Earlington; Miss Elizabeth McKibbin, of Augusta; Rev. J. J. Dalton, D. D., of Anderson; Rev. I. J. Spencer, Lexington; Rev. W. E. Biederwolf, of Logansport, Ind.; Judge J. H. Beauchamp made an inspiring address on "Practical Good Citizenship."

The convention elected the Rev. W. S. Danley, of Owensboro, State President for the ensuing year.

Republican Conventions.

Congressional District Convention meets at Winchester on Wednesday, the 16th inst., the State Congressional Convention at Louisville on Thursday, the 17th inst., and the Seventh Appellate District Convention at Louisville, Lawrence county, on Tuesday, June 5, for the purpose of nominating a Republican candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals.

The Republican State Convention, to elect four delegates from the State-at-large to the National Convention in Philadelphia, and two presidential electors, will be held at the Auditorium in Louisville Thursday. Mr. C. M. Barnett, chairman of the State Central Committee, announces that a special convention will be held to nominate W. S. Taylor for Governor if the Supreme Court upholds Gov. Beckham. Get ready.

A fine line of Cakes, Chees Straws and Wafers received yesterday.

STOOD UP FOR HIMSELF.

Tom Jones, the Best Cavalryman in the Regiment.

An English general, in reviewing a corps of cavalry, suddenly stopped before a splendid-looking fellow and asked abruptly:

"Which is the best horse in the regiment?"

"No. 40, sir."

"What makes you think he is the best horse?"

"He walks, trots, and gallops well; is a good jumper; has no vice, no blemish; carries his head well; is in his prime."

"And who is the best soldier in the regiment?"

"Tom Jones, sir."

"Why?"

"Because he is an honorable man, is obedient, is tidy, takes good care of his equipment and his horse, and does his duty well."

"And who is the best rider of the best horse?"

"Tom Jones, sir."

"And who is Tom Jones?"

"I am, sir"—London Tit-Bits.
